

What happens at the Research Reporting Session?

These sessions deliver the most recent sugarbeet research from universities and other business experts directly to you, the Great Lakes beet producers, private consultants and agribusiness decision makers.

Attending this seminar will keep you on the cutting edge of sugar-beet technology.

Add this date to your calendar!
Tuesday, January 26, 2016
8:30 am to 3 pm

CCA and RUP Recertification Credits Pending Approval

See other side of this flyer for registration information. We must know how many people plan to attend for the lunch count. Please contact Karlie at (989) 758-2500 or email vanpopp8@msu.edu, by Friday, January 22nd, 2016.

PLEASE DON'T SEND MONEY!!
We'll collect your payment of $35 per person at the door on Tuesday, January 26th, 2016!

MSU is an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity employer.

First Class
Presorted
US Postage
PAID
Ithaca, MI
Permit No. 35

MSU Extension Saginaw County
1 Tuscola St. Ste. 100A
Saginaw, MI 48607

2016 Sugarbeet Research Reporting Session

Tuesday, January 26, 2016

Double Tree Hotel
1 Wenonah Park Place
Bay City, MI 48708

Brought to you by these partners:

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY | Extension

UNIVERSITY of GUELPH

This event delivers current sugarbeet research to help you make informed decisions.

PROGRAM AGENDA

8:30 am Registration, Refreshments and Welcome

Morning Moderator—David Pratt, Agronomist, Michigan Sugar Company

9:00 “Cercospora Leafspot Update”

James Stewart, Research Agronomist, Michigan Sugar Company

9:20 “Recent Developments with Cercospora Leafspot in Michigan”

Dr. Linda Hanson, Research Plant Pathologist, USDA-ARS, MSU

9:40 “Cercospora 2015—What Went Wrong?”

David Pratt, Agronomist, Michigan Sugar Company

10:00 “Cercospora Leafspot Management—An Ontario Update”

Cheryl Trueman, M.Sc., Professor, University of Guelph-Ridgetown Campus

10:20 “Sugarbeet Cyst Nematode, Cover Crops and Soil Health”

Dr. George Bird, Professor, Dept. of Entomology, MSU

10:40 Break

11:00 “Do’s and Don’ts of Sugarbeet Cyst Nematode Management”

Fred Warner, Nematologist, Dept. of Plant, Soil and Microbial Sciences, MSU

11:20 “An Update on the Sugarbeet Genome Sequence”

Dr. Mitch McGrath, Research Geneticist, USDA-ARS, MSU

11:40 “Weed Management Challenges in Sugarbeet for 2016”

Dr. Christy Sprague, Associate Professor and Weed Extension Specialist, Dept. of Plant, Soil and Microbial Sciences, MSU

Noon LUNCH

Afternoon Moderator—Steve Poindexter, Senior Extension Educator, MSU

1:10 “The Hoop Building New Concept in Beet Storage”

Rick List, Ag Operations Manager, Michigan Sugar Company

1:30 “Adjusting Nitrogen Fertilizer Rates to Optimize Economic Returns Based on Harvest Date and Row Width”

Dr. Laura Van Eerd, School of Environmental Science, University of Guelph
Amanda DeBruyn & Mike Zink

1:50 “Michigan Sugar Research Update”

Brian Groulx, Research Assistant, Michigan Sugar Company

2:10 “Research on Non Traditional Products”

Thomas Wenzel, Extension Research Technician, MSU

2:30 “Clariva Nematode Seed Treatment”

Steve Poindexter, Senior Extension Educator, MSU

2:50 Wrap Up Steven Poindexter Recertification Credits, CCA and Evaluation

To attend this event, which includes lunch, you must register by phone or email.

Call Karlie at 989-758-2500, ext. 237 or email vanpopp8@msu.edu

Plan to pay at the door — the cost is $35 per person. Cash or checks accepted. We do not accept credit cards. Have your check made payable to Michigan State University. If you’re ready the line will move quickly.